CONFESSION OF FAITH

AND

COVENANT.

[From Manuals of May, 1820, and January 1, 1834.]

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

We believe that there is one God, self-existent, eternal, infinitely perfect and glorious, unchangeable in His being and perfections; the Creator and owner of all things, and the Sovereign of the Universe.

That this one God subsists, in a manner at present mysterious to us, as Father, Son and Holy Ghost, three in one and one in three.

That God has revealed His will to mankind in the Bible, which was given by His inspiration, and which is the only sufficient and unerring rule of faith and practice.

That God created our first parents in His own image, perfectly holy and happy; but that in consequence of their sin, all their posterity are born with corrupt or depraved hearts, so that they become sinful and exposed to the wrath of God forever.

That God of His own sovereign grace has devised a scheme for our redemption, by which the exercise of mercy is made consistent with the maintenance of justice, and with the honor of His government.

That the Son of God, the eternal Word, was made flesh, or became man, and by His death upon the cross, is the propitiation for the sins of the world, and that He arose from the dead and is seated at the right hand of God the Father, being invested with all power in heaven and on earth.

That every one who believes in the name of Jesus Christ, or who receives Him as He is offered in the Gospel, is pardoned and restored to the favor of God, however numerous and great may have been his sins.

That all who truly believe in Jesus Christ are entitled to everlasting life, and will assuredly, according to the divine promise, be kept through faith and holiness unto salvation.

That man is so depraved that he will not repent and believe in Jesus Christ, unless by the Spirit of God a new heart is given him, a heart to love the Lord his God supremely.

That no sinner by anything which he does, lays God under any obligation to grant him His regenerating grace; but that God bestows this gift in a free and sovereign manner, having mercy on whom He will have mercy.

That believers though delivered from the curse are bound to yield a perfect obedience to the divine law, and are therefore sinful in all the defects of their holy exercises.

That Jesus Christ has a Church in the world, and that among His institutions He has appointed Baptism and the Lord's Supper, to be received by all who cordially believe in Him and make profession of their faith, and that the infant children of such are proper subjects of baptism.

That there is appointed a day of judgment, at which period Jesus Christ will raise the dead and judge the world, and will doom the wicked to everlasting destruction, and receive the redeemed to the happiness and glory of His eternal kingdom.

THE COVENANT.

As we consider ourselves to be under great and indispensable obligations to confess Jesus Christ before men, and to unite with His visible Church on earth, we do now enter into covenant with this Church; we do renounce all the ways of sin, and publicly and solemnly devote ourselves to the Lord our God, taking His word to be our rule of faith and practice, receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as our teacher and Saviour, and relying for sanctification upon the influences of the Holy Spirit.

We promise to attend constantly upon the institutions of the Gospel; to maintain family and secret prayer; to present our children for baptism, and to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord; to commemorate, as we have opportunity, the death of our Saviour in the Supper; to assemble for the worship of God on the Lord's day; to keep the Sabbath holy, and to maintain and submit to the discipline of Christ's house, according to the rules of His word.

And we finally promise, diligently to promote the interests of the religion of Christ our Lord, and particularly to recommend it to others by presenting in our own lives an example of justice, temperance, beneficence, and Godliness.

Relying on the aids of the Divine Spirit, we do now make these solemn engagements in the presence of God, of angels and of this congregation.

DECLARATION OF ADMISSION.

We, then, the Church of Christ, do receive you into full communion, promising to conduct towards you as becometh saints, and to watch over you with Christian affection, praying God that both you and we may be at last presented faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy. Amen.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

AND

COVENANT.

[The same as published in the Manuals of July, 1848, and July, 1870.]

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

We believe there is but one God, the Creator, Preserver, and Governor of the Universe; a Being self-existent, independent and immutable; infinite in power, knowledge, wisdom, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth.

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament were given by inspiration of God; that they contain a complete and harmonious system of divine truth; and are the only and sufficient rule of doctrinal belief and religious practice.

We believe that God is revealed in the Scriptures as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; and that this distinction is perfectly consistent with the unity of the Godhead, and that these three are one, and in all divine attributes, equal.

We believe that God made all things for Himself; that known unto Him are all His works from the beginning; that He governs all things according to the counsel of His own will; and that the principles and administration of His government are perfectly wise, holy, just and good.

We believe that our first parents were created holy —in the image of God; that they fell from this state of holiness by voluntarily transgressing the divine command; and that in consequence of their apostacy from God, the heart of man, until renewed by grace, is destitute of holiness, and alienated from God.

We believe that Christ, as God manifest in the flesh, became the one Mediator between God and man; that by His obedience, sufferings and death, He has made a proper and adequate atonement for sin; that He is the only Redeemer of sinners; and that whosoever will, may be saved; yet that such is the aversion of men to holiness, that all men will refuse to come to Christ, unless God, by the special influences of His Spirit, draw them.

We believe that those who are saved, were chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, that they should be holy and without blame before Him in love; that they are saved, not by works of righteousness which they have done, but through the sovereign mercy of God, by regeneration, repentance, and faith in Jesus Christ; and that those who are born of God are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ, and are kept by the power of God, through faith, unto eternal life.

We believe that there will be a general resurrection of the bodies, both of the just and unjust; that all mankind must one day stand before the judgment-seat of Christ, to receive a just and final sentence of retribution according to the deeds done here in the body; and that the reward bestowed on the righteous, and the punishment inflicted on the wicked, will be, alike, eternal.

Moreover, we believe that in this world the Lord Jesus Christ has a visible Church; that the terms of membership are a credible profession of faith in Christ, and of that holiness which is wrought by the renewing grace of God; that none but members of the visible church, in regular standing, have a right to partake of the Lord's Supper; and that only believers and their households, can be admitted to the ordinance of Baptism.

THE COVENANT.

In the presence of God, His holy angels, and this assembly, you now solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affections, and your portion for ever.

You now cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ, in all his mediatorial offices, Prophet, Priest and King, as your only Savior and final Judge; and the Holy Ghost as your Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide.

You humbly and cheerfully devote yourselves to God, in the everlasting covenant of His grace; and you consecrate all your powers and faculties to His service and glory; and you promise, that through the assistance of His Spirit, you will cleave to Him as your chief good; that you will give diligent attendance to His word and ordinances; that you will seek the honor and interest of His kingdom; and that, henceforth, denying all ungodliness, and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously, and godly in the world.

You do now cordially join yourselves to this, as a Church of Christ, engaging to submit to the rules of its government and discipline; to strive earnestly for its peace, edification and purity, and to walk with its members in charity, faithfulness, circumspection, meekness and sobriety.

We then affectionately receive you, as a member of the visible Church of Christ, in full communion, and entitled to all its privileges. We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel, and on our part engage to watch over you and seek your edification, as long as you shall continue among us.

Should you have occasion to remove, it will be your duty to seek, and ours to grant, a recommendation to another Church; for hereafter, you can never withdraw from the watch and communion of the saints without a breach of covenant.

And now, beloved in the Lord, let it be impressed on your minds, that you have come under solemn obligations, from which you can never escape. Wherever you go, these vows will be upon you. They will follow you to the bar of God; and in whatever world you may be fixed, they will abide upon you to eternity. You can never again be as you have been. You have unalterably committed yourselves, and henceforth you must be the servants of God.

Hereafter the eyes of the world will be upon you; and as you demean yourselves, so religion will be honored or disgraced. If you walk worthy of your profession, you will be a credit and a comfort to us, but if otherwise, it will be an occasion of grief and reproach. But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

May the Lord guide and preserve you till death, and at last receive you and us to that blessed world where our love and joy shall be forever perfect. Amen.

At the annual meeting of the Church, held December 15, 1880, the following minute was adopted:

We, as a Church, do hereby reaffirm the foregoing Articles as sufficiently indicating our doctrinal position. We expect all officers to give an intelligent assent to them.

We regard the essential qualifications for membership in any Christian Church, however, to be, Repentance toward God and Faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. While we are not allowed to receive any who lack these essential qualifications, we desire to exclude none who possess them, and who, knowing our Doctrinal position and our Polity, are willing to co-operate with us in advancing the Redeemer's kingdom.

ORDER OF SERVICE

FOR

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

ADOPTED DEC. 15, 1880.

SERVICE OF ADMISSION.

(The names of those persons publicly confessing Christ and entering into covenant with this Church, having been already propounded and by vote of the Church accepted, shall be read by the minister, and they shall rise before the Church and congregation, there being sung at the same time the following words, or others chosen by the officiating minister:

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find.
O, Lamb of God! I come, I come.

Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because Thy promise I believe,
O, Lamb of God! I come, I come.)

ADDRESS TO CANDIDATES.

(Taken from the service of admission used in the Old South Church, Boston:)

The Lord Jesus Christ witnessed a good confession at the time when He said, to this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. And He taketh notice of it, to the high praise and commendation of the Church in Pergamos, that they held fast His name, and had not denied His faith. We find how ready the Apostle was to make a confession of his faith, though for that hope's sake he was accused and put in chains. What hours of temptation may overtake you, is not for us to say. Only the Lord doth many times so order things that, when his people have made a good confession, they should be put upon the trial, one way or another, to see whether they have been sincere in what they have done. The Lord grant that your mind (minds) may be so girt about with truth that you may be able to stand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand.

CONFESSION.

I invite you to unite with me, and with the members of this church, in our common confession, saying:

(The members of the Church rise.)

THE APOSTLE'S CREED.

I BELIEVE in God, the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth.
AND in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord,
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
Born of the Virgin Mary,
Suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, dead and buried.
He descended into Hell,
The third day he rose from the dead,
He ascended into Heaven

And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I BELIEVE in the Holy Ghost;
The holy Catholic Church,—the communion of saints,
The forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body,
And the life everlasting. Amen.

BAPTISM.

(The Church then being seated, but the candidates still standing, the minister shall say to such as have been baptized:)

Do you here in the presence of God and of this congregation renew the solemn promise and vow that was made in your name at your baptism, ratifying and confirming the same in your own persons.

(To such as have not been baptized the minister shall say:)

Do you desire to be baptized, and do you purpose obediently to keep God's holy will and commandments and to walk in the same all the days of your life?

(Assent being given, the ordinance of Baptism shall be here administered, and then all the candidates shall give assent to)

THE COVENANT.

In the presence of God, his holy angels, and this assembly, you now solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affections, and your portion forever.

You now cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ, in all His mediatorial offices, Prophet, Priest and King, as your only Savior and final Judge; and the Holy Ghost as your Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide.

You humbly and cheerfully devote yourselves to God, in the everlasting covenant of His grace; and you consecrate all your powers and faculties to His service and glory; and you promise, that through the assistance of His Spirit, you will cleave to Him as your chief good; that you will give diligent attendance to His word and ordinances; that you will seek the honor and interest of His kingdom; and that, henceforth, denying all ungodliness, and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously and godly in the world.

You do now cordially join yourselves to this, as a Church of Christ, engaging to submit to the rules of its government and discipline; to strive earnestly for its peace, edification and purity, and to walk with its members in charity, faithfulness, circumspection, meekness and sobriety.

This you severally profess and engage.

[Here the Church rises.]

We then affectionately receive you, as a member of this Church of Christ, in full communion, and entitled to all its privileges. We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel, and on our part engage to watch over you and seek your edification, as long as you shall continue among us.

Now therefore you are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God.

We beseech the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His spirit in the inner man;

That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth and height,

And to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.

The Lord bless you and keep you:

The Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you:

The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

Now unto Him that is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

Unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Standing Rules of the Church.

CONCERNING MEMBERS.

All persons wishing to make profession of religion and to unite with this Church, shall be examined with reference to their Christian experience and doctrinal views. For this purpose the Pastor and Deacons shall be constituted a standing committee; such examinations, if requested, shall be before the church, and at all times the members of the church shall have liberty to attend.

After such examination any person who may be approved shall be propounded at least one Sabbath before admission.

No person shall be received into the church but by a vote of the Church, which vote shall be taken on the day of the Lecture, or some time previous to the communion, but Confession of Faith shall be made, and the Covenant shall be publicly read and assented to, on the Sabbath.

All persons, who may come recommended to this church by letter, shall be examined by the Pastor, or at his request, by the assistance of a committee; and if approved, they shall be propounded at least one Sabbath previous to admission.

Members of sister churches in good standing, who reside among us, may be admitted to occasional communion for the space of one year, and no longer, unless they give satisfactory reasons to the church why the indulgence should be prolonged.

CONCERNING OFFICERS.

PERMANENT OFFICERS.

The permanent officers of this church are a Pastor and Deacons.

The Pastor shall be a member of this church, and shall preside, when present, at all meetings of the church.

The Deacons shall provide for, and assist in, the administration of the Lord's Supper; shall inquire into the wants of necessitous members, and contribute of the charities of the church to their relief, and assist the pastor in visiting the sick; and shall present a written report, at the annual church meeting, upon the condition of the church in the year past.

The Deacons shall be chosen for a term of four years, the votes of two-thirds of the members present being necessary to a choice. This rule, however, does not prevent a re-election.

ANNUAL OFFICERS.

At the annual meeting the following officers shall be chosen, by ballot, for the ensuing year:

1. A Clerk.
2. A Treasurer.
3. An Auditor.
4. Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent of Sabbath School.

The Clerk shall keep the records of the church, and an accurate list of the members.

The Treasurer shall take charge of all money belonging to the church, subject to the order of the Deacons, or vote of the church, and of all collections for religious and charitable objects, and make a written report at the annual meeting.

The Auditor shall examine and audit the Treasurer's account, and report at the annual meeting.

The Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent of the Sabbath School shall, with the Pastor, constitute a board of directors, having oversight of the Sabbath School connected with the church. They shall have power to appoint subordinate officers, and shall report upon the condition of the Sabbath School at the annual meeting.

CONCERNING CHURCH LIFE.

SERVICES ON THE LORD'S DAY.

This church will sustain, upon the Lord's Day, public worship, and a school for the instruction of the children of the church, and all others willing to attend.

The first Sabbath evening of each month will be devoted to efforts to awaken and sustain interest in the christianization of the world.

The second Sabbath evening in each alternate month a service for children will be held.

CHURCH ORDINANCES.

INFANT BAPTISM.

LORD'S SUPPER.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be administered on the first Sabbath of each alternate month, commencing with January.

A preparatory Lecture, or prayer meeting, shall be attended on every Friday, or some other day of the week preceding the administration of the Lord's Supper.

A contribution for the support of the table and other purposes, shall be had as often as the sacrament of the Supper shall be administered.

THE MID-WEEK SERVICE.

This church will hold a Mid-week Service for prayer and conference, on Friday evening of each week. At this meeting letters of dismission may be granted, and delegates to councils and conferences chosen.

CHURCH CHARITIES.

These shall be received in such manner as the church shall order at the annual meeting for business.

MEETINGS FOR BUSINESS.

The annual meeting of the church, for business, shall be held in December, at such time as the officers of the church shall appoint.

A meeting for business may be called at any time, when, in the opinion of the officers of the church, it shall be thought expedient, or upon the written application of five male members of the church.

All meetings for business shall be notified from the pulpit upon the Sabbath, or at some meeting of the church.
